

UPCOMING TRANSITION-RELATED EVENTS FOR EDUCATORS

---

Wednesday, March 25, 2026 6pm-8pm

Woburn SEPAC 2026 College and Transition Fair

[In-Person] Woburn Memorial High School

The fair is open to students/families across the region looking to learn more about post-secondary transition education options and programs available in adulthood.

Visit <https://woburnsepac.org/collegefair> for more information.

Friday, March 27, 2026 and Saturday, March 28, 2026

Brighter Futures: A National Conference on Adults with Down Syndrome and Aging

[In-Person] DCU Center, Worcester, MA

A gathering featuring the latest research findings and timely information from national experts on a range of topics related to adulthood and aging for individuals with Down syndrome.

Register at: <https://brighterfuturesconference.com/>

Thursday, April 9, 2026 6pm-8pm

Transition Fair hosted by LABBB Educational Collaborative

[In-Person] Grace Chapel, 59 Worthen Road, Lexington

A transition fair open to all interested with over 30 exhibitors. Information on family support, adult agencies, vocational services, employment support, recreation and supported housing will be available, with representatives from each of the agencies.

Tuesday, April 14, 2026 9am-5pm

Mental Health First Aid

[In-Person] Northeast Arc, 1 Southside Road, Danvers, MA

In the training, participants learn Common signs and symptoms of mental health challenges, substance use, and how to interact with someone in crisis, and connect them with help. The training is free. Additional dates are available.

Register at: <https://bit.ly/NEARCMHFA>

Friday, April 17, 2026 9:30am-1pm

Helping Schools Help Students: Preparing for the New DESE Regulations Around Time Out Practices presented by Disability Law Center

The webinar will focus on providing information to schools about the tools available to them with the new DESE regulations. Information will be provided in a user-friendly format and will help schools understand and comply with the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) new regulations around reducing and eliminating the use of time-out rooms in Massachusetts schools.

Register at: <https://www.dlc-ma.org/helping-schools-help-students/>

Thursday, April 30, 2026 5:30pm-7:30pm

Malden/Medford Transition Fair

[In-Person] Malden High School, 77 Salem Street, Malden, MA 02148

A transition fair providing information on resources in the Northeast Region with a goal to give caretakers, students, and staff access to information about transition resources. The event features information on family support, adult agencies, vocational services, employment support, recreation, and supported housing.

Visit <https://sites.google.com/maldenps.org/malden-medford-transition-fair/home> for more information.